Waiting on the Lord

General Conference
October 2020
By Elder Jeffrey R. Holland
Of the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles

Summary

Faith means trusting God in good times and bad, even if that includes some suffering until we see His arm revealed in our behalf.

Ensign November 2020

Talk Theme

- Elder Holland asks three questions at the beginning of the talk. Have you ever asked similar questions?
- What are your reactions to the statement, “So while we work and wait together for the answers to some of our prayers, I offer you my apostolic promise that they are heard and they are answered, though perhaps not at the time or in the way we wanted. But they are always answered at the time and in the way an omniscient and eternally compassionate parent should answer them”?
- What does it mean to you that God “administers that calendar to every one of us individually”?
- How do we trust God in good times and bad times?
- What did Elder Maxwell mean when he said, “one’s life … cannot be both faith-filled and stress-free.”?
- How do you react to his comment, “Christianity is comforting, but it is often not comfortable.”?
- What does by and by mean to you?
